

NATIVE AMERICAN STUDIES MINOR

---

This program provides opportunities for St. Scholastica students to study Native American history, contemporary developments and tribal cultures, as well as to interact with Native American professionals and peers. Knowledge of Native American contributions to our social, political, economic and scientific development will enable students to develop a broader view and a deeper appreciation of our national heritage.

Contact Information

nas@css.edu

Learning Outcomes

The student completing the Native American Studies minor will be able to:

1. Promote an awareness and understanding of the history, culture and philosophy of Native Americans
2. Recognize the different life experiences of Native Americans.
3. Improve the ability of students to integrate this knowledge with their future professional careers.

Requirements

Students must achieve the following program requirements for all courses listed under "Program Required Courses" for the Native American Studies minor.

Program Requirements

Minor Credits: 20

Program Required Courses

Code	Title	Credits
NAS/HIS 2201	American Indian History I	4
NAS 2610	Indigenous Peoples of North America	4
NAS/PHL 3301	American Indian Philosophy	4
Select one of the following:		4
NAS 2203	American Indian Literature
NAS/ART 2204	American Indian Art and Music
Four additional NAS credits are needed to complete the minor		4
Total Credits		20

Students may petition the department to take alternative elective courses.