

HUMANITIES

The Humanities major is one of the most flexible majors at The College.

In consultation with the Humanities Major coordinator, students design a course of study that appeals to their interests. Each Humanities major program is unique to the student who designs it. The program coordinator is granted some leeway in creating course plans. The Humanities major is an excellent choice for students with a variety of interests.

Humanities Courses

HUM 1174 - Introduction to Geography - 4 cr.

A topical overview of physical, cultural, economic and regional geography. The course is designed for those with little or no background in the discipline. Required for SSC majors.

HUM 3366 - Travel Writing (Integrations : VIOP - Electives) - 4 cr.

Designed for students interested in exploring Ireland through writing, this course emphasizes the writing process as adapted to travel experiences. Requirements include reading travel writing by others, keeping a journal of observations, writing several travel pieces, and participating in writers' workshops. When offered, the course is taught onsite in Ireland.

HUM 3378 - Spirituality and Prayer - 4 cr.

Explores a theology and practice of prayer as reflected by some classic and contemporary Christian and non-Christian writers. This course encourages students to discover their own unique pathways of prayer, develop a personal relationship with God in their spiritual quest and engage in a prayer life that nurtures and inspires their quest for meaning in life.
