

MEDIEVAL RENAISSANCE STUDIES INTERDISCIPLINARY MINOR

Medieval and Renaissance Studies offers students an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary minor focusing on western culture from late antiquity through the beginnings of European colonialism. Core courses ground students in medieval and renaissance thought and cultures, while elective courses offer options to develop particular interests. With careful planning, students integrate coursework in Veritas to develop a multi-disciplinary and interdisciplinary focus. Students from across campus and from numerous major disciplines pursue the minor.
