

ECONOMICS, APPLIED MINOR

A minor in Applied Economics is offered to students who would like to complement their major with courses grounded in economic methodology. Applying economic thinking to another field of study has repeatedly generated new insights for the student.

Contact information

mbsdept@css.edu

Requirements

Students must achieve the following program requirements for all courses listed under Program Requirements and Program Required Courses for the Economics, Applied minor.

Program Requirements

Minor Credits: 20

Program Required Courses

Code	Title	Credits
Required Courses
ECN 2230	Principles of Microeconomics	4
ECN 2280	Principles of Macroeconomics	4
8 Upper division ECN elective credits		8
ECN elective credits		4
Courses taken to earn the minor should be designed with an economics faculty member to best fit the student's academic goals.
Total Credits		20